REGIONAL SECURITY AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

Enhancing Global Governance through Regional integration

Prof. Srinivas Rao Cheruku

25th August,2020

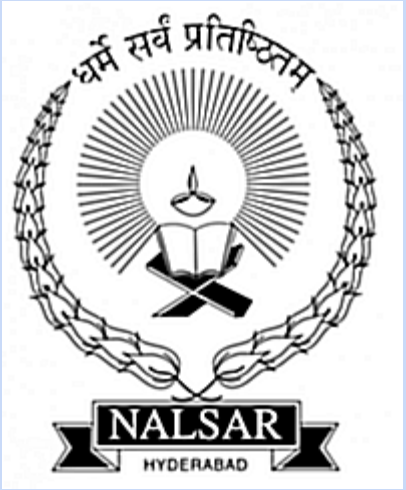

GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

- Concept
- Globalization
- Connecting governance to the Global realm

Global Governance and United Nations

The future of global governance will be shaped by following factors:

- Individual empowerment
- Human security
- Institutional complexity
- International power shift
- Liberal world political paradigm

Perspective of Global Governance

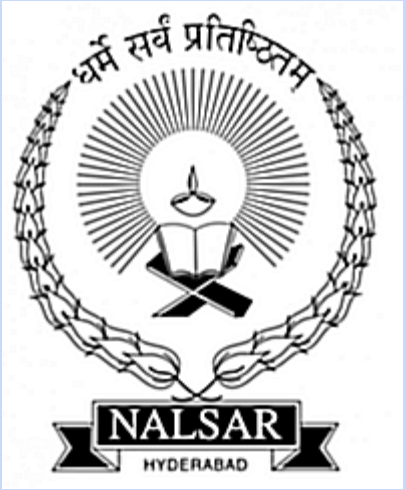

- Normative Perspective
- Analytical Perspective

UN AGENDA

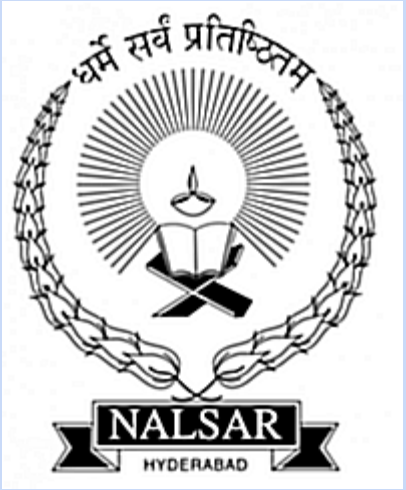

Two central concerns must drive the UN agenda

- Socio-economic Challenge
- Diplomatic Challenge
- State legitamacy

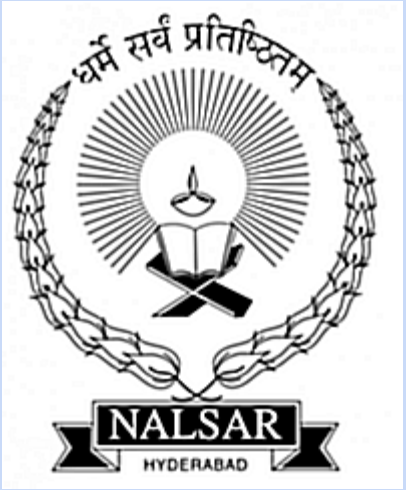

Preconditions for UN Success

- Balancing world powers
- Garnering regional support
- Fostering trust

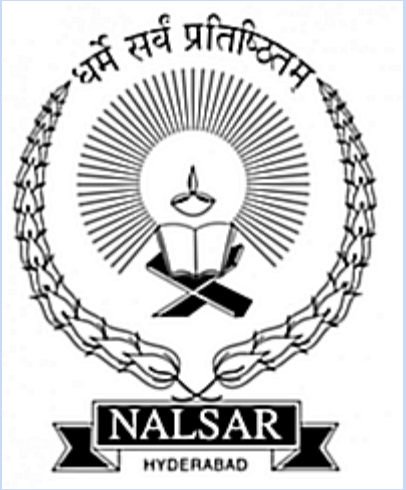

Regionalism

- Regions, Regionalism and Regionalization
- Early and Recent debates on Regionalism
- Regionalism and World Order
- Regional Organization

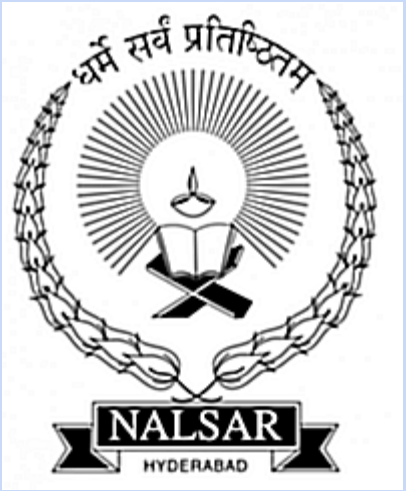

Macro Regional Governance

- ASEAN
- AFTA
- SAFTA
- WTO

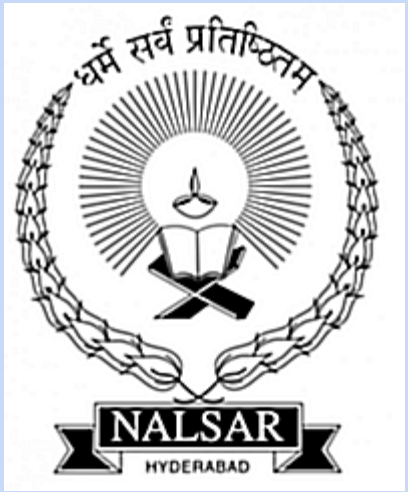

The Future of Regionalism: Old Divides and New Frontiers

- New wave of regionalism
- Globalization and regionalism
- From dichotomy to diversity
- Comparative Regionalism

Challenges of Governance in Asia

- End of Cold war
- Old and New Threats to Regional Stability and Security
  (i) Asia Pacific Region
  (ii) East Asia
- New issues of governance
- US Reaction to Changing Regional, power balance
- Japan’s ambitions for regional leadership

THANK YOU